

A partnership of women's organisations in Scotland would like to invite you to attend:

“Elimination and Prevention of all Forms of Violence against Women and Girls - Bringing it Home”

The event will focus on the priority theme from the UN's 57th Commission on the Status of Women, the elimination and prevention of all forms of violence against women and girls, and will consider how this affects women and girls in Scotland.

Thursday 6th June 2013

11am - 3pm

Augustine's United Church, Edinburgh

Refreshments will be provided

Free to all. To register, please email
