Why is this UNISON plan better than others?

Leading dental plans only pay half towards your private treatment costs. So if your treatment bill comes to £200, you'll only get £100 towards it.

With this exclusive plan for UNISON members you would get £200!

When can I start using the plan?

There is a qualifying period of 13 weeks from your first payment before you can claim (12 months for denture & denture repairs) After that, you can claim as often as you need to, up to your maximum benefit limit. You'll need to have been for a full examination twelve months prior to joining the plan. Your private dental bills will then be covered for all new conditions, up to the generous annual maximum benefits as above. Claims cannot be made for any outstanding treatment.
